4 Correct Her Postcard

Hi Aaron,

I'm having a great time here in Fiji. It's a very interesting place. You should come some day and see it for yourself. I've made some friends. They are so nice and polite. We often go to the beach and swim all day. Of course, you must put on a lot of sunscreen in order to avoid sunburn. I hope to go for a couple of weeks to LA next spring. Oh, I have to tell you about this guy I met. Gorgeous, 6'3", suntanned, 007 looks, etc. Do I have to tell you more? We go to the beach every morning to watch the sunrise. Well, you are going to meet him when you come here. You can see I'm having a fantastic time here.

Love,
Alice

4 Correct the News Story

On the journey to (→) Rhodes island, the young and beautiful Evi Tsombie met the handsome Arturo de Gakides. She fell in love at first sight with this charming Spanish nobleman. Arturo, however, was a madman and murderer hunted by the police for various crimes. Towards the end of the journey, Evi discovered the true identity of the man she was with. Her pain was so strong that she jumped overboard into the rough and cold sea. But Evi didn't drown; she swam to a nearby island called Simi. There she reported the murderer to the police who called the police in Rhodes port. Upon arrival, Arturo was arrested and locked up forever. Evi was given a medal for bravery.
