

1Activity

Complete the sentences using the correct opposite adjectives.

- 1 Lisa is the most _____ person I know. She can't wait for anything! (patient)
- 2 How could you say such a mean and _____ thing to him? (sensitive)
- 3 I didn't think her apology was very convincing. The entire speech was _____ .
(sincere)
- 4 Well, then we won't go to the zoo since it seems to be a very _____ choice.
(popular)
- 5 I still can't believe that he sold the company's secrets to the competition. Who would have thought he was so _____ . (loyal)
- 6 Larry didn't want to be _____ , so he said that the food was delicious. (kind)

2Activity

Read and choose the correct response.

- 1 As she came round the corner, Clarissa made up for/made for the finish line.
- 2 Is Madonna as popular to/popular with teenagers as she used to be?
- 3 I cannot wash my face with regular soap because I am sensitive to/sensitive from the chemicals.
- 4 Roger tried to make up/make out the name on the street sign, but it was too dark.
- 5 Be careful of/careful with that vase! Mum will be furious with you if you break it.
- 6 No, I'm sorry but I'm not familiar with/familiar to that part of the city.
- 7 What makes this type of fruit juice different from/different to the other ones?
- 8 Eric is a lot of fun on long car trips because he loves to make up/make out stories to pass the time.