

WORKSHEET

James Watt, the archaeology teacher, has gone missing!

Four classmates Liv, Leo, Nick and Suki decided to search for their teacher.
Your team wants to help them!

You can find the clues in your worksheet and around the classroom.

The four friends chose the name #CodeCrackers for their team.
What is the name of your team?

The name of our team is _____

CLUE #1

The first clue is in your book.

To find the page you are looking for,
think:

How many letters does the English alphabet have?

This number – (minus) 6 =
the page you are looking for.

CLUE #2

Congratulations on finding your first clue!

Where is Roy sitting?
You sit there too!

Look under it to find your next clue!

CLUE #5

You are doing great! Fill in what is missing from the next four sentences:

- 1) At weekends we like to ____ swimming.
- 2) I can't wait to go ____ school.
- 3) She was on the front ____ of the newspaper.
- 4) Last year was year 20__.

Put one word after the other:

This is your next clue.

CLUE #6

Look carefully at the pieces of furniture...

What is the number you get when you add a sofa, a table and a wardrobe?

_____ + _____ + _____ =
the page you need to go.

CLUE #7

You are very close to finding Mr Watt...

Now, look at the picture with the house: How many rooms are there in the house?

This number $\times 2 =$
the page you need to go.

CLUE #8

How good is your geography?

Answer question number 4
and find out in which country the teacher is.

CLUE #9

Congratulations on finding the country!

But in order to find Mr Watt, you also need to know the city.

Can you place the letters of the city in the right order?

L-N-O-O-N-D

LAST CLUE

Answer the riddle to find where Mr Watt is:

What building has the most stories to tell in a city?

It is somewhere you can find many of the things you found in Clue 4!

MR. WATT IS _____

CLUE #3

Those who search, always find!
Open your book on page 20 and say hi to Roy again.

Where is Roy's laptop?
Your teacher has one too.

Search carefully to find the next clue...

CLUE #4

You must now get some rest, return quickly to your desk.

This clue will help you at the end.
Answer the riddle, and then go on to the next clue.

'I hold everything you need to know.
You use me to make your grammar and vocabulary grow.

What am I?'

I am a ____!
